SUN DAY, FEB. 9, 1879.

OUR JUDICIARY.

Constitutional grumblers, who talk on account of the love they have for growling, and professional demagogues who lie to advance their own interests, are fond of prating about the corruptions existing in our courts of justice. They will tell you that a rich man has nothing whatever to fear from them, provided they are willing to put their hands in their pocket-books. They will say that in this country, makes the mare go." This idea, like many another one as false, from constant repetition, has been instilled into the public mind as an unassailable truth.

We do not deny that in many instances the ermine of our judges has been defiled by disgraceful conduct; we do not deny that our jury system has been abused in many cases; we do not deny that pettifogging "shysters," by means of artifice and trickery, have turned five persons to inquire into the Mislogge on society criminals who sissippi levee system has passed the Direct from the Manufacturers ought to spend the remainder of their days in our penal institutions; we do not deny that the free use of money has many times turned aside the punishments which were richly deserved. We deny nothing of all this, but we do say that in this respect our country is no worse off than any other.

Not long since, it was flashed along the wires all over the world, that the famous Bank of the City of of the Texas Legislature, sends money Glascow had suspended payment. Up to the time this was announced, everybody thought that bank one of erty the safest in the United Kingdom. Perhaps no event of the kind has ever caused such excitement. girl, who sang it artlessly as she sold Thousands were, from a state of some sort of Italian wares, and touched his fine ear by the purity of affluence, plunged into deepest her voice. poverty. Widows and orphans, with their little all invested therein, without a moment's warning, were thrown on the cold, pitiless world, wihtout a penny, to beg, starve or steal. Other institutions were hurled down by the force of its fall, and they, each of them, carried want into a hundred households.

An investigation into the affairs of the bank was ordered, and it was discovered that the managers had been guilty of fraud, in publishing false reports of their hold. Only see that "Fleming financial condition. This being Bros., 24 Wood street, Pittsburgh," reported the Directors were indict- is on the wrapper, or you will get a ed and arrested. February 5th, 1879,—feb.12 4w what is considered "mitigating circumstances" across the waters, we Chancery Court, Knexvill, Tenn. will give his opinion. The Justice said, "The defendants have not falsified their accounts for their own benefit, but from a mistaken idea that it was for the public good." A strange excuse for so great a crime.
If this idea was carried out to its legitimate conclusion there is not a crime on the calendar that would not admit of this apology. It is subsaid, " The defendants have not falnot admit of this apology. It is substantantially an endorsement of the old Jesuistical doctrine, "The end several Presiof Insurance Companies, managers River mines, who were the very crime. They were tried in the courts on this side of the Atlantic, and received as punishment for their conduct, long terms of imprisonment in the penitentiaries of their respective States. The wealth and social standing of these latter men was fully as good as that of the Bank Directors, yet it was of no avail.

In conclusion, we would like to suggest to those who are accustomed to rail at the judiciary without knowing of anything except single exceptionable cases, that they should pay some attention to the old maxim: "Always verify your references."

IF the statements contained in an editorial in the this week's Week'y New York Tribune be true, the people of Memphis have only proceeded from bad to worse. The writer holds that a city is nothing 500 Cases Kip Boots. but a huge partnership, and that as long as they remain incorporated, the city, as a whole, is responsible 500 Cares Calf Brogans, for the debt; but when the charter is repealed, the partnership is dissolved, and each individual is liable 500 Rolls Leather. for the debts of the whole city.

In proof of his assertion, he mentions the case of Bridgeport, Conn., Hat Department in 1842, the cases being similar. After suit had been brought and decided in favor of the creditors, their attorney seized on two private 500 Cases Children's Hats. mercantile houses in satisfaction of the debt. The court of highest more than in any other "money appeal in that State decided that the action was according to law.

Of course this course, if pursued, must be decided upon in the case of home creditors by the Tennessee NAILS, HGRSE SHOES, HORSE NAILS, AXES, POCKET AND State courts, but as regards foreign creditors the United States Court will have jurisdiction. We do not know how it will end, but it is a source of new complications for the unfortunate late city of Memphis.

KNOXVILLE CHRONICLE FOR 1879.

Subscrib- for a Good, Reliable News

The DAILY CHRONICLE, and WEEKLY WHIG AND CHRONICLE, will be kept up during the year 1879 to their usual high standard. By enterprise, accurateness, and close attention to the wants of our readers, we hope to merit a continuation of the liberal patronage heretofore extended these journals.

Nearly nine years ago, when there was not a Republican daily in the State, and only two or three in the South, we commenced the publication of the CHRONICLE. In all these years we have battled for Republican principles, and see no reason to change our course now. Hence we shall continue to publish truthful, reliable Republican journal, not the organ of any man or clique, but the outspoken and measures and men, best calculated to promote the welfare of the country and the Republican party. We will endeavor to make our agricultural columns worth more to fearless advocate of principles, farmers than our subscription price. As a newspaper our publications shall not be excelled in the State. In addition to our telegraphic dispatches from all parts of the world, our readers shall have the benefit of correspondence and every other means through which reliable information is obtained,

Each number of the paper will contain selections made with special reference to the home circle. We will continue to avoid everything calculated to contaminate, and will publish a paper that may be taken without question within the sacred precints of the family circle.

Our market reports shall have close attention, and be made entirely correct and reliable.

We call upon all persons interested in the publication of our in- BILL-HEADS. dependent, fearless, reliable Republican journal to come to our aid and assist in extending the circulation of the DAILY CHRONICLE and WEEKLY WHIG AND CHRONICLE.

In view of the financial pressure upon the country and the general reduction of values, we have decided to reduce the price of the WEEKLQ WHIG AND CHRONICLE to suit the times. In the future we will send our weekly paper to subscribers on the following.

To any person who will send us a club of ten subscribers with the cash, $15.00, we will send one copy extra. Payment will be required invariably in advance.
